THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, - - MARCH 6, 1895.

- A. Feld is one of the enterprising merchants of this place. See how he uses printer's ink. He has goods to sell you at the right prices. Go and see him.

The Messes. Hays, of Winchester, will open a dry goods store in the Arnold building. They are splendid business men, and will do everything "according to the queen's taste."

M. L. Driggs has opened a new, new grocery on Irvine street, between Second and Third. It will be worth while to drop in and see how nice everything is.

Budley Saus has sold his farm on Union City Pike and will dispose of it land and kitchen furniture on March 16th of March. We learn that he will soon move to Scott County, Ky.

Gov. James B. McCreary has succeeded in securing the additional $25,000 for the completion of the custom house in this city. Work will resume as soon as the weather permits.

- Mrs. John James, who has been engaged in the confectionery and grocery stores here for the past year, assigned the benefit of her creditors last Friday. The assets are said to be greater than the liabilities.

- N. S. Beathenage & Co., successors to H. G. & D. Beathenage are in the field since in your business. They give no reason why you should not deal with them. Go and see what they have to offer.

- Mr. L. D. Hains, who has been engaged in the conversion of the streets into training courses.

- Mrs. D. L. Bentz filed suit yesterday for divorce from Thomas Bentz. They married in Bienville, Ky., in January, 1891. Plaintiff charges abandonment.

Courier Journal, March 5.

- White & Gibson come to the front this week with their usual spring announcement. The ladies should not fail to call on them, as they have a very handsome line of goods, just received from New York. They surpass all former efforts in selecting their stock. They are noted, too, for selling at very reasonable prices. Miss Della Ramsey is still with this firm as saleslady, and will be pleased to see her friends.

Editor Clinton:

Please publish the following item as it has been suggested to me by some of your subscribers, viz:

The famous law suit between P. A. Thomas and "Brother" Grinstead in John Doty's court has been compromised. Now "Brother" has the quiet, peaceful possession of his home place again.

"Brother" always says he neither owns nor sells his place to any of his "brethren" except for cash, and it is advance. Brother is more familiarly known as "Laughing George." Respectfully,

Editor Clinton:

- Tom Graves, a young man from the Red Lick country, was in town on Tuesday and filled himself with neat whisky. While mauling on Water street, "Dockey Row," he became very boisterous and drawing his revolver struck a man over the head with it. Officer Berry and an assistant tried to arrest him, when he mounted his horse and, with pistol in hand, defied the authorities to arrest him, and rode about the streets flourishing his pistol and yelling as in the fastnesses of the forests bordering on Red Lick. Oldie Feeney being notified of his conduct started out to bring the offender in and armed himself with a shotgun loaded with buckshot. After calling upon him to surrender and being met by several shots from the revolver, Oldie Feeney leaped on him with his shotgun and a few minutes later he was a prisoner, being finally captured by Jader Wagers and Shelly Jeet. He is a brother of Cash Gravel, the escaped convict, now supposed to be living out in the vicinity of his home, on Red Lick. Cash was reported as having been seen in town country, but it such was the case he made himself "mighty scarce."

- Frank Carr says passenger and freight traffic is looking up. The business can be his road for this city and immediate vicinity last month will exceed that of last year during the same period by about 20 per cent, which is gratifying when considered as evidence of a general revival of business. After all, no silver lining may be "just over the hill."

Lecture on Hawaii

Prof. J. N. Ingram, of California, who has spent five years on the Polynesian Islands, will speak this evening at the Presbyterian church, a lecture on Six Months Amongst the Missions of Hawaii. On Thursday evening he will lecture at the University Chapel on the Natives of Hawaii, their life and history.

Court Day Sales.

The sales last Monday were light owing to the scarcity of stock. About 300 head of cattle sold at prices ranging from $200 per head; one calf, $100, to $120; cows, $20 to $25; one filly colt, $20; one yearling mare, $40; brood mares, $20 to $50; one cow and nine pigs, $20; meat hogs, $10; $10. Big crowd and full sale.

- Mrs. Ellen Preston, a widow with seven small children, has been found in an old cabin near Beggs Mill on Silver Creek. The mother sick, and the family without food or fuel and almost without clothing. The older boy, a child of fourteen was out on our streets Friday soliciting aid. Such cases seem to be worthy of the assistance of our city, and an immediate effort should be made to place the family out of distressed circumstances.

Harry S. Wood, a traveling salesman, had a drawing for a fine black horse at the Glendon Hotel Saturday morning. The horse was drawn by N. C. Bidgeway, a tobacco merchant of Palmetto, Ky., paying 25 cents for his chance. A singular coincidence connected with the drawing is, Mr. Bidgeway was the second man to take a chance; drawing came off on the second day and his number, which was the lucky one, was the second out that came out of the box.

Go to Feld's for bargains. First st.

- Our County Directory on the first page and the Lodge Directory on the fourth page are of public interest, and should be correct. We have no means of knowing where errors occur unless interested persons notify us. Information on this line is solicited. Send us a card or drop in the office and tell us, we will gladly make corrections.

The dogs made a raid on the sheepfold of Judge Goodloe at Whites Station, killing and mortally wounding fifty out of a flock of one hundred and fifty. Those killed were principally ewes either heavy with nursing lambs, so that at least 40 lambs were killed in addition. On Sunday morning three dogs were still in the field at the bloody work. Judge pursued them with his shotgun, killing one and following the others to their homes where they were promptly despatched.

Johnson Bros. Hardware Co., of Cincinnati, for whom our townsmen, P. M. Poole, is a traveling salesman, offered cash premiums last year of $300, $200 and $150 to the three salesmen who made the largest amount of sales. Our friend, P. M. Poole, carried off the second prize, and was only beaten by $225.50 on sales amounting to near $30,000. This certainly speaks well for the enterprise and push of neighbor Poole, and we hope that he will continue winning prizes in the discharge of duty. The gentleman who carried off $300 in this business contest was Mr. Johnson, a member of the firm, who is a well known man in his field in the West.
